GEN. GRANT'S ADMINISTRATION—STRONG IN THE BEGINNING—WEAK NOW—ITS MISTAKES RECITED—A CRITICISM OF THE CABINET, AND CHANGES DEMANDED—VIEWS OF THE LEADING RADICAL JOURNAL OF THE WEST.

When General Grant was inducted into the Presidential office on the 4th of March last, he was stronger in the respect and confidence of the people than any other man who has filled that high office during the present generation. The only predecessor comparable to him in this regard was Mr. Lincoln; but Mr. Lincoln never saw the day when he was free from the active, determined hostility of a powerful political party. This party, when General Grant was inaugurated, had not only been crushed by defeat, but conquered by a latent admiration of the cool, silent, sure-footed antagonist who had overthrown them on so many and such diverse fields of action.—The Republican party, so lately torn asunder by the impeachment trial, was again united and irresistible in its loyalty to its elected chief. On that day it may be safely said that President Grant was the strongest man in Christendom; for his power was rooted in the affections of a free people.

There has been change. Two months have passed away, and it cannot be affirmed that we have a strong Administration. Its moral power has been frittered away by small absurdities, which, fortunately, have no bearing upon the sincerity, the truthfulness, or the high purpose of the President and his advisers. We doubt if there ever was an Administration with more good intentions at heart or less aptitude for carrying them into effect. And since the evil which exists is not able to cure itself, its remedy must be sought and found elsewhere. General Grant is our President. He is a man of high motives and pure purposes. History does not record a more illustrious career in arms than his. Whether we regard the magnitude of his achievement or his singleness of purpose—whether we contemplate the accuracy of his judgment, or the firmness of his resolves, or the unselfishness of his acts—we must admit that he stands among the great men of ancient and modern times. He is too great and too good a man to be allowed to fall into popular derision for the want of friends courageous enough to acquaint him with his errors.

General Grant's first mistake consisted in his supposing that a government is the same thing as an army, and that an administration is to be carried on as a battle is fought, with infantry, cavalry and artillery. To command an army successfully officers are needed to execute the orders of the General in Chief. To carry on a government statesmen are needed who understand the ideas, the wants, and the temperament of the people, and whose conjoint experience and wisdom may form a body of opinion in harmony with the nation, or at least with the party in power. If there be a statesman in General Grant's Cabinet he has yet to make himself known as such to the public. To begin at the beginning, the Secretary of State does not know the men, or the idea, or the country of the present day; nor do they know him. He is a gentleman of a noble and pure type. It is probable that he was as much surprised when he was called to fill the foremost place in the Cabinet as his countrymen were. He has come down to us from a former generation, and, in all that constitutes excellence of character, he is a worthy representative of the times in which he acted his part. But he is not the man to conduct our diplomacy. Nor is he the man to take a leading position in a great and progressive Government. The Secretary of the Treasury is likewise a man of pure and elevated character, who has risen from an humble station by his own perseverance and rectitude. But his abilities are not above mediocrity, and if he should remain at the head of the Treasury Department during his natural life he could do no more than drift with the tide and avoid the breakers from hour to hour as best he might.

The Secretary of War is the strongest and most positive man in the Cabinet—a hero in every moral aspect, yet an invalid in health and unqualified by training and experience to take the leading position which circumstances have forced upon him in the national administration. Even he is unknown to the country save as a staff officer of the Commanding General during the war. Few men know the worth, and few have felt the native powers of mind, which belong to John A. Rawlins. In view of his close relations to the President and his sterling qualities, his appointment was certainly fit to be made, and we hope he may be retained. As the administrative officer of the War Department he has no superior, feeble as he is in physical health and and air ng; yet no one will admit more readily than himself that he has not had the sort of education which fits a man to lead a Cabinet council. And we fear that even his advice has been thus far of little avail. The Secretary of the Navy is by common consent unfitted either for administration or council—a worthy and well-meaning merchant, whose unfamiliarity with political affairs is exceeded only by his ignorance of naval affairs. The Secretary of the Interior, the Postmaster General, and the Attorney General are probably competent to discharge the clerical duties of their offices; but prior to their elevation they were not in any way distinguished as statesmen, or held by their acquaintances as better qualified to assume the reins of Government than the average of their neighbors in the same plane of society. Gen. Grant, whose distinguished excellence during the war consisted in his ability to select the right men for the right places, has apparently not perceived that state men are required to fill the places of statesmen.

The second mistake of the President—and the one which has, perhaps, weakened him most in the public estimation—is his eagerness to appoint personal friends and relatives to office. In this behalf he has furnished a target to the enemy, where all their shots take effect, not upon him alone, but upon the party which elected him. In appointing Mr. Washburne Secretary of State, as a mere matter of compliment, he trifled with the dignity of the highest office within his gift. A compliment of this nature ought not to have been either conferred or accepted. The office was too high to be made an instrument of politeness.—More than half the votes against the repeal of the office-tenure law were made by this indiscreet act. Gen. Grant was right in demanding the repeal of that law. He stood upon solid ground when he refused to move until the obnoxious statue should be repealed; and if he had not erred in the exercise of the appointing power in the precise way that he did err, he would have overcome all opposition within a week after his inauguration. But by first despoiling the principal office in his gift, and then making haste to confer other important and valuable offices upon near relations and personal cronies, he subjected himself to the charge of nepotism. The Senate was not slow to perceive that in a contest growing out of the tenure-of office law they had all the advantage, because the people would be quick to observe that the appointing power was not judiciously exercised, and would not so readily comprehend the viciousness of the principle underlying the obnoxious statute. Hence the law was not repealed.

Why, it may be asked, do we say these things? The answer is two-fold. In the first place they are already known—everybody is talking about them in the streets, on horse cars, in the railroad trains, in the club rooms, around euchre tables, and everywhere except in the Executive Mansion. The facts cannot be more public than they are. In the second place, it is necessary, as we conceive, that there should be a change. There must be a Cabinet with statesmanship in it, and there must be an end to nepotism in the Government, because the respect and confidence of the public cannot be retained where the former is wanting and where the latter abounds.—Without the respect and confidence of the public, no Administration can have any vitality. "This," as Mr. Lincoln said to the Southern Commissioners, "is our common country." General Grant is our Chief Magistrate. His services have been too great, his principles are too high, his responsibilities are too vast, to be dwarfed and jeopardized for the want of a little plain, unvarnished truth. If any apology is required from us, we have nothing better to offer than this: that we are sincerely attached to our President, and to the principles upon which he was elected, and we cannot permit the usefulness of the one or the success of the other to be put in peril by a series of petty mistakes, so readily repaired, if we have any power to avert the catastrophe.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

MONDAY, MAY 3, 1869.

BOSTON PHILANTHROPY.

There never was a people more addicted to the vice of self-praise and self-exaltation than the denizens of the bailiwick of Boston. There never was a city in which its inhabitants were so given up to mock philanthropy as that city which claims to be the "Modern Athens." Nor in this world has there ever been a more intolerant, presumptuous, arrogant and superstitious "folk" than those who live at the great centre of Massachusetts civilization. From immemorial time they have been abusing and vilipending the people of the South. They have delighted in magnifying and perverting everything that was done in the South, until they poisoned and corrupted all who believed their monstrous fabrications or gross distortions of truth. This thing has been going on for years. They not only villified us so successfully that the people of the Northern States regarded us as almost semi-civilized, but Europe, adopting their intolerable slanders as truth, regarded us as a set of ignorant, uneducated, effete tyrants, who were a disgrace to modern civilization. But these times have past. People have grown wiser. The war showed what we were. It developed the courage, endurance, genius and self-abnegation of our best and truest.—Time, which corrects many wrongs and removes many false impressions, has witnessed the vindication of the character of our people, and has also laid bare to public gaze some of the iniquities which curse and blight Massachusetts society. The crimes, the murders, the feticides, the poverty, the sufferings of that boastful State have been exposed.

Some developments have lately taken place to which we would direct attention. It has recently been established that among the females of Boston there are more suffering and wretchedness and extreme poverty than are to be found elsewhere on this continent. This is not what Southern men assert, but it is what Northern editors and Northern speakers have iterated and reiterated time and again. The other day there was held in Boston a Convention of working-women. The facts then stated are not only startling but absolutely revolting. As a Northern editor observes, they read "more like some hideous invention than like facts of the nineteenth century, having existence in the modern Athens of the new World." Why only listen to what Mrs. Warren said:

"I have canvassed fifteen cities of the United States, and have not, in any of them, found the condition of women so deplorable, as in the city of Boston."

Mrs. Sarah Ellis, a midule aged woman, a tailoress by trade, being asked to speak, said: I merely rise to state some facts. I am an American woman, wife and mother, yet I have worked from dawn to sundown, not stopping to get one mouthful of food, for twenty-five cents. I have lived on one cracker a day, because I could not get employment and could not get any more food, though I have travelled from house to house, and from place to place, seeking for work. Even women have asked us to make shirts for two shillings apiece. These garments (exhibiting two sacks and two shirts) are from one of the charitable institutions of Boston; have been made entirety, hemmed, felled, buttonholed, and gusseted, for forty five cents, and all the work done by hand.

Miss Phelps spoke:

"There are 2,000 needle women in Boston who get only 35 cents a day, at the most."

Another woman exhibited a sack bag full of shirts. These were to be made out and out for 45 cents each.

Dr. Dio Lewis gave her testimony:

"There are 20,000 women in Boston who earn their living by the needle."

Mrs. Houghton said:

"She knew of the cases of women who made shirts at 50 cents a dozen."

Mrs. Warren again spoke:

"Each costly dress makes three prostitutes."

Now is not this revelation perfectly sickening? This is "modern civilization"; this is life in Boston for thousands of its miserable, unhappy victims; this is Boston humanity and love for the masses. Bostonians go into hysterical fits of crying and sentimentalisings over Cretans in the Mediterranean, or over the "friend and brother," the poor, unfortunate negro, but forget that at their own doors, all around them are thousands of immortals crying for food, worked to death, driven into prostitution for a living. Why not expend some of their philanthropy over the poor of Boston? Why not create societies of relief for the 20,000 needle women of their own city, before they indulge in lackadaisical flummery over the sorrows and trials of people who are far better off without their proffered assistance. Go people of Boston to your penniless and oppressed women, with the hand of open charity, read Hood's "Song of the Shirt," so full of truth and pathos, and resolve with the help of the Lord to do better.

Very rarely are Spanish authors paid anything for their writings, and even when they do the labor gratuitously they generally have to bear expense and risk of publication.

The French navy now contains 65 armored ships of war, 241 screw propellers, 51 side-wheel steamers, and 100 sailing vessels, making the very respectable total of 455 frigates, corvettes, &c.

There has been discovered in France a substance the destructive effects of which far exceed the terrible force of picrate of potassium. Some experiments are to be made with it at Cherbourg.

FORNEY AND FOURTEEN.

We did not see Col. John Forney and his fourteen companions who were in the city a few days ago, as rumor has it, with five millions of dollars to invest in Southern lands.

We suppose the party left a portion of the five millions in trusty hands, to be laid out in lands sold by our Sheriff Tim Lee. Saturday last, the first day of May, was a day of rejoicing to some people, but it was all sorrow and woe to many a poor man in Wake.

The Sheriff of Wake sold under the hammer at the Court House door on the 1st day of May, twenty-three plantations, containing 7872 acres, which brought $7,718. The sale it will be seen did not average one dollar per acre—the Sheriff said some of the land was cheap at $40 00 per acre in gold.

This too is under the second term of Governor Holden's administration. Col. Forney republished all of Holden's calumnies against the people of North Carolina, that the lives of Northern men were not safe among us. Such publications kept out all good men who valued life more than ill-gotten gain. The result was, good men remained in their Northern homes, while the desperado came down like a wolf on the fold. But neither Forney nor Holden meant or believed what they published or said.

After Forney and Holden have by foul and false publications scared off good men with capital, Forney, with fourteen others, come down with their $5,000,000 to invest. Forney may not have had this in view when he was republishing Holden's slanders upon the whole people of the State. But to keep off suspicion he should have kept from among them with his millions, at this particular time, when hungry ruin holds a whole people in the wind and nine out of ten are to have the shelter which protects the wife and the child, sold from over their heads.

What has happened to make Forney safe since he and Holden last year published that the life of a Northern man was not safe among us? At that time there were negro troops here to protect him. Now they are gone; yet Forney comes to invest his $5,000,000, when land worth $40 in gold, sells for less than one in greenbacks. Shame on Forney! Shame on Holden!

Our position with regard to Northern men coming among us is not to be misunderstood. The Northern man who comes like Judge Cilley and the Greensboro Manufacturing Company (and others we could name) we are glad to see and right cordially have we met them. But the Northern man who comes like the editor of the Standard and others to corrupt and buy up the Legislature, we say begone. To the carpet-bagger and bull pusher who have squatted in the counties where the negro predominates, for the cultivation of the political instead of the cotton field, we say begone: "Stand not upon the order of your going, but go at once."

"OUR" SENATOR.

General Abbott is thus referred to by the Concord (New Hampshire) Patriot:

"This recalls to mind our "little affair" with this redoubtable carpet-bag General. Some time last summer we had occasion to refer to his career in this State, and spoke quite freely of certain incidents therein. In due time one of the proprietors of the Patriot received a letter from him demanding a retraction, and closing with these ominous words: "You will readily understand the import of this note, for, while I have never had other than kindly relations with you, I cannot permit my private affairs to be dragged before the public without remonstrance, or a resort to some mode of redress."

"In reply to this belligerent note, he was informed that, as the facts referred to had long been matters of public notoriety, and had never been denied, so far as we knew, we must decline to make the 'retraction' demanded. And that was the end of the matter. The gallant carpet-bagger has been in this region since, but neither cowhide nor pistol has been employed to force from us the desired satisfaction."

Gen. Rufus Barringer.—This gentleman who supported the Radical ticket last November, is getting sick of the company he has been keeping, if we may judge him by what he says. He has written a letter to Senator Sprague, of Rhode Island, in which he endorses the Senator's recent bold utterances, deeming them "eminently suited to the wants of the times." He says that the Senator's views and his own "run somewhat in the same direction," and concludes his letter with this sentence:

"As a citizen, a parent, and a Christian, I feel deep concern at the general demoralization of the country, and I heartily rejoice when those in high places have the candor and courage to speak words of soberness and truth."

Upon the completion of the twenty-thousandth sale at Werthheim's great factory in Vienna, Mr. Werthheim gave to his 700 laborers and their wives and children a festival, for which Strauss composed a polka, with hammer accompaniment. During the festival the following, among other articles, were consumed: 2,900 dishes of ice cream, 2,000 glasses of lemonade, 5,000 cakes, 3,000 bottles of wine, 100 kegs of beer, and 4,000 loaves of bread.

In California there is made, on an average, from 550 to 630 gallons of wine to the acre. The four most productive of the wine growing districts of Europe are: Italy, giving to the acre 441½ gallons; Austria and her provinces, 265 3 6 gallons; France, 176 2 7 gallons; Nassau, 237½ gallons.

RIP VAN WINKLE'S VINDICATIONS FROM TREASON.

Davidson College, April 25, 1869.

Mr. Editor—Dear Sir: I notice in the Sentinel of April 10th, a production entitled "Radicalism so-called," which seems to be written in reply to an article of February 26th, and signed "Rip Van Winkle." The object of the above mentioned article seems to be to demolish Rip, and throw discredit on his statements.

Did not honor demand of me a reply to charges involving character, I would have hesitated (under other circumstances) to enter the field of controversy, with five men arrayed against me. Nor would I have been so presumptious as to expect that I could reply to an article, which seems to have been the offspring of so protracted an effort of conjoined wisdom.

My trust, however, is to point out to an undiscriminating public, wherein our statements differ. The true issue—undisguised by modern philanthropy or false sentimentality. For such a task, no gigantic efforts are needed; for a well founded faith is cherished, in the justice of the cause. I am charged by Morrison & Co., with four offences. 1st. That I have not correctly quoted the resolutions introduced into the meeting. 2d. That I asserted "they were defeated by a large majority, when they were not even voted upon." 3rd. Of a "breach of faith—and, 4th, of not telling the truth," the whole truth, and nothing but the truth."

Below are appended the two sets of resolutions, from a comparison of which candor can draw its own conclusions. Set as published by Morrison & Co.:

1st. That the students do tender to Professor McIver their heartfelt thanks, for that faithful and conscientious discharge of the duties of his office, which has won for him so high a place in their confidence and esteem.

2nd. That while they part from him with regret, yet their best wishes accompany him to his new sphere of usefulness, and they bid him God speed in his indefatigable endeavors to advance the cause of education.

3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be handed to Prof. McIver, and that they be published in the Raleigh Sentinel, and Western Democrat, with request that State papers copy.

Rip Van Winkle's resolutions are as follows:

1st. That we give a vote of thanks to Prof. McIver for the faithful discharge of his duties.

2nd. That we sincerely regret the departure of him who has won for himself our highest respect and admiration as an instructor.

3rd. That we wish him God-speed in the glorious work of education, and success in the new field which he is about to enter.

4th. That these resolutions be published in the Raleigh Sentinel and Charlotte Democrat.

These resolutions were written by me, from impressions left on my mind after hearing them read over. Now, on an inspection of the two sets of resolutions, it is clear that they are identical in meaning, if not in language and arrangement. And this charge of misrepresentation is evidently "a much ado about nothing," as they differ from each other in meaning, about as much as "Tweedle Dee from Tweedle Dum." The second charge is, that I said "the resolutions were defeated by a large majority," when, in reality, they were "not even voted upon." Rip has made no such expression. What he did say was: "Virtue finally triumphed, and it was decided by a large majority that no such resolutions should be published"—not "voted" upon as alleged. The question is, how was it so decided? Simply by a substitute offered in their place, and adopted with a distinct understanding that it should be handed to Prof. McIver, without even the honor of a publication. On an inspection of my articles it will be seen that I made no allusion to the accepted substitute, and that my remarks applied wholly to the unadopted proceedings of the meeting about which there was no undue haste, as to their non-publication. But this accepted substitute was been published by A. J. Morrison & Co., and thus reveals themselves the charge of "breach of faith." Now, is it not somewhat surprising and suspicious that these young gentlemen should complain of the publication of these resolutions, which were introduced for the express purpose, and urged by them!—if they "verily believe that the original resolutions could have been carried; if they had been insisted on, and put to a vote," why did they accept such a "substitute?" Thus virtually losing one of the main purposes intended. The supposition is absurd and ridiculous. Who ever heard of the reception of such a "substitute" when the originators of the resolution were certain of success? The objection urged against the resolutions (and especially the 2nd) arose from the belief that it would be an endorsement of Radicalism, because it wished Prof. Iver "God speed" in the work of building up a Mongrel college. For it being a State Institution, supported by a Radical Legislature, governed by a Radical Board of Trustees, and officered by a set of Radical Professors, they are bound according to their principles to make no distinction, on account of color, race, or previous condition.

Now suppose a set of negroes or mulattoes should present themselves for matriculation, the Faculty would be bound to receive them according to their enunciated principles, which would entitle them to the privilege of reciting in the same classes, eating at the same tables, and rooming in the same building as the whites. Thus social equality would be established—and as a sequence—amalgamation and degeneracy of the white race would ensue. Now I wish the black race protected by wise and just laws, both in person and property—wish them improved and christianized—and had Prof. McIver resigned his chair in Davidson, to go to a College, founded expressly for the black race, I too, and I doubt not, all the students at Davidson, could have wished him "God speed." But I fully believe that the Almighty himself, has fixed such indelible marks of distinction on the two races, that all the efforts of humanitarians, socialists, and philanthropists (under the garb of religion) aided by Radical legislation, can never efface, or time itself wash out: neither can.—I believe that "Christian Philanthropists" ought to wish any man "God speed" in such an undertaking. For what God has separated by his act of creation—let not man seek to blend together. A J. Morrison and others make a piteous appeal to the "good people of North Carolina," not to consider them as Radicals. I have never charged them with being Radicals, neither do I believe them to be such.—But I believe their zeal, in advocating the passage of the second resolution, has placed them in a false position before some of their fellow students, and the country at large, rendering them liable to the suspicion of bowing to the rising sun. I am not responsible for the excitement caused by the introduction of those resolutions. I had written no article for the papers, reflecting on the Faculty, the Board of Trustees or the students, calculated to inflame and arouse them, and I wrote my former communication simply with the desire of relieving the College of any stain that might rest on it, and because I believed that the motives of the gentlemen, had been misapprehended. I have, now, reviewed the article of Morrison and others, and leave it to an enlightened public to judge whether I have not fully vindicated myself from the charges of misrepresentation, and violated faith.—Now, Mr. Editor, my Christian name would be given to the public, had I the vanity to suppose that they had any desire to know who Rip is. Rip, however, is known in College as occupying room No. 51, South wing of the College building. Now let bygones be by-gones and "let us have peace."

STATE NEWS.

The Scotch Fair begins on 2d Tuesday in May (the 11th,) near Laurel Hill, in Richmond county, N. C., and continues the balance of the week. All classes of men congregate there on these occasions in immense numbers from that and the adjoining counties. The business is an active promiscuous trade in horses, mules, wagons, tobacco, liquors, dry goods, leather, flour, bacon, notions, &c. Traders locate there for the week in shanties made of boards, tents, &c. A large portion of the peddlers, wagoners, mule-drovers, gamblers, and traveling traders of two or three States, gather at those Fairs. The institution was established some 70 years ago by the early Scotch settlers, is chartered by the Legislature, and similar to the great European Fairs. Friday and Saturday are the most crowded days.—Fay. Eagle.

The merchants and railroad men of Charleston and Cheraw have invited the citizens of Salisbury to meet with them at Cheraw, May 12th, to consider the expense of building a railroad from Salisbury to Cheraw.—Charlotte Times.

Sad Casualty.—A most lamentable occurence, resulting in the death of a young lady, took place in this county, about twelve miles from Goldsboro, on Wednesday last. It seems that a young lad, John Hood, was trifling with a gun, not knowing it was loaded, and while picking the tube the gun accidently discharged, the load taking effect in the breast of Miss Polly Hood, sister to the young man, killing her instantly. Boys beware of Fire-arms.—Goldsboro Messenger.

We notice there is to be a Fair at Swann's Station, on the Fayetteville and Western Railroad, in Moore County, to commence the first Wednesday in May next, (the 5th,) and continue the balance of the week. It will be an assemblage of the week. It will be an assemblage of Farmers.—Fay. Eagle.

Real Estate in Fayetteville has been changing hands at high prices. The well-known Merchants' Mills were sold a few days ago by Mr. McDaniel to Mr. W. C. Troy for $7,000.—Ib.

An Immense Haul.—The quantity of rock fish being caught in the Roanoke at this place just now is immense. One slide in the river, on Wednesday night, captured sixty rocks with an average weight of forty pounds. A ready sale is found for them all, as they are shipped in every direction.—Weldon News.

The Boat.—The Silver Wave, plying between this place and Hill's Ferry, on the Roanoke, made its last trip down on yesterday. The steamer Ella Smith will take her place until next July, when she will resume her place.—Ib.

There were but five deaths among the whites in Wilmington during the month of April. Of these two were still born.

The Mills of Mr. Alex. Oldham in Wilmington require 600 bushels of grain daily.

Bently, alias Henry V. Clinton, the forger, who recently exhibited his sharp practice upon a Wilmington Bank, turns out to be an old scamp. The Journal says:

"He is one of the most accomplished forgers in the United States, has carried on his swindling operations in Massachusetts, New York, Illinois and other States, has been in jail in South America, hung about the streets of Havana and traveled generally. Through South America and Cuba and the United States he has been followed for about eighteen months past by Mr. John F. Rittenhouse, a detective, bearing a regular commission from Governor Palmer, of Illinois. Bently was jailed in New Granada, but effected his escape, and the chase of Mr. Rittenhouse was continued ever since. He has a wife and child who reside in Parkersburg, Va. Gov. Holden issued a warrant to the Sheriff of New Hanover to deliver Clinton to Detective Rittenhouse who had a requisition from the Governor of Illinois. He is now on his way to Illinois.

Murder of a Young North Carolinian in Alabama.—On Wednesday, the 8th instant, Mr. Thomas J. Oates, a young North Carolinian, and native of Duplin County, was murdered at a little place called Courtland, (Ala.,) by a man named Paschall, the keeper of the railroad eating house at point. Mr. Oates was the son of Mr. C. J. Oates, of Brunswick, who is well known to our citizens, and resided in this city for several years. The murdered man was a conductor on the Memphis & Charleston Railroad at the time he lost his life, and was held in high favor by the managers of the company. The difficulty between himself and Paschall was a dispute over a bill for board presented by the latter for a discharged brakesman of the company. At Paschall's house conductor Oates stopped to get breakfast when this dispute, previously commenced, was renewed. Paschall snapped a pistol in Oates' face when the latter in turn drew a weapon and fired, the ball passing through Paschall's hat as he dodged inside the house.—Paschall then jerked up a shot gun, loaded with buck shot and gaining a window fired through it hitting Oates in the right arm and breast and disabling him. The unfortunate young man was warned to leave by some friends who told him Paschall was cowardly enough to shoot him again while in this condition. Oates thought he could not be quite so brutal and remained and was shot again and instantly killed, the shot entering his heart.—Wil. Journal.

ELDER Q. A. WARD, of the Primitive Baptist Church, will preach, in this city, at the Baptist Church to-night, Monday.

SERIOUS ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL.—On Sunday morning, Mr. Temple, who was acting as jailor, the old jailor, Emory, having been removed, got information that the prisoners were proposing to make their escape. He and Sheriff Lee visited the jail and searched for certain tools which they suspected were concealed. They found a buggy wrench, a knife and some wire. On Sunday evening about sundown, Mr. Temple, opened the door of the cell in which five prisoners were confined: They rushed suddenly upon him before he could use his pistol. A colored prisoner, Levi Pope, seeing this, ran up stairs and providing himself with some old shackles returned quickly. His first blow knocked down a negro soldier by the name of Willis. This scoundrel killed Anderson Selby (a Raleigh negro,) some months ago near the depot, but his sentence of death had been commuted to imprisonment for life by the Governor. Pope having upset Willis, next turned his attention to the other prisoners, and knocked down one, but just then, Willis having recovered from the blow he had received, knocked Pope down in turn. Pope recovered soon, when grasping his old shackles he "waded in" and soon cleared out the party, thereby releasing the acting jailor. Mr. Temple is severely scratched about the throat, and was badly choked. He owes, as he informs us, the preservation of his life, to the courage and fidelity of Levi Pope. Pope is under sentence to the Penitentiary, but his case furnishes an excellent opportunity for Executive clemency. We hope it will be exercised. Willis succeeded in escaping, but was quickly over-taken and re committed to jail.

SUNDAY.—We worshipped yesterday morning with the congregation at the Presbyterian church. The pastor, Rev. J. M. Atkinson, officiated. The opening prayer was rich, comprehensive and yet minute, tender and spiritual. The sermon was an admirable discussion of the doctrine of the "Final Perseverance of the Children of God." We observed with pleasure that the learned pastor preserved the excellent habit of writing his discourses. The result was, the sermon was compact, connected, and scholarly without pedantry. The singing was really fine, and we noted with satisfaction, that although the choir is excellent, most of the congregation thought it their duty to unite with it in praising God.

Professor W. T. Brooks, of Wake Forest, occupied the pulpit at the Baptist church both in the morning and evening. An excellent judge informs us that his two sermons were able and practical.

WE have received eight additional subscribers from Orange. Send in your names and money. Keep the ball in motion.

BE sure to read what the Chicago Tribune says of Grant. See first page.

DELINQUENT SUBSCRIBERS.—We have a considerable number of subscribers who are in arrears. We urge them to remit the amounts due us at once.

ARREST OF J. E. EMORY.—This person, former jailor, and removed on Saturday, was arrested to-day, and carried before Col. Harrison, a Justice of the Peace, upon a charge of conspiring to liberate the prisoners now confined in jail. The evidence went to establish his guilt. It appeared that Emory provided the prisoners with tools with which to make their escape. He was to receive for his valuable services the sum of $50. He however only got $40, but was to get the remainder when he furnished them with some other tools he had bargained to supply. He was bound in a bond of $1,000 for his appearance at the next term of the Court. This seems a very trifling bail for so grave an offence. He failed to give bail and has been committed.

ROW AMONG THE RATS.—On Saturday afternoon last, we learn that Col. Dewese, M. C., went into the jewelry store of H. Mahler. Soon after, Logan Harris, son of Cebe, entered also, and upon seeing the M. C. he turned to another counter, having his back towards him. Dewese, then addressed him familiarly, as Logan. Whereupon the latter turned and said in substance, "I do not wish you to speak to me." Dewese then inquired as to the cause of this. Harris then began to indulge in "coss words," and applied sundry harsh epithets to the Metropolitan M. C., all the way from Indiana. The M. C. then drew a pistol, which only provoked young Harris to increase his "cussing" volubility. Mr. Mahler interfered, stating that he did not want any difficulty to occur in his house. Soon after Dewese left. Harris remained until he had transacted his business.

Dewese had promised Harris the Postmaster's place—as he had several others.

THE notice of the Medical Society of the State of North Carolina which we publish to day, was overlooked accidentally.

SUCH has been the increase of circulation of our weekly edition we were compelled to day to add six quires—one hundred and forty-four copies.

"RIP VAN WINKLE."—We have already devoted much space to the controversy between parties at Davidson College. If a rejoinder to "Rip" is sent, it must be short, and with it, as far as our columns are concerned, the discussion must close.

THE SOUTHERN OPINION, we are glad to learn is no-mo. It was a mischievous and unnecessary publication and its death is not to be regretted.

WE again say to our friends of the Press, give credit. We have observed latterly several articles copied from the Sentinel without proper credit being given. Some instances of the sort have come under our notice in to-day's mail.

A FRUITFUL BUSH.—Our friend Dr. R. T. Haywood, of this city, gathered 113 strawberries last week, from one bush. Pretty good!

GROFF'S VIOLET INK is very beautiful. It flows charmingly. Try it.

THE BALTIMORE Statesman has changed its form. It is now a large four page paper. We do not like the change. The old adage, "Let well enough alone," is a good one.

JOSH BILLINGS ON OWLS.—The owl is a game bird; he can whip anything wears feathers—after dark.

He is a wise bird, and hoots at most things.

He is a sollum bird, a cross between a justice of the peace and a county supervisor.

He is a stiff bird, and sits up as stiff as an exclamation point.

He is a luxurious bird, and feeds on young chickens.

He is a long-lived bird, and never was known to take death naturally.

He is a hard bird, and grows tuff by builening.

He is an honest bird, and always shows an open countenance.

He is a prompt bird, and satisfize at once his outstanding bills.

He is a cumfortable bird, and always sleeps in feathers.

He is an attractive bird, and during the day can always be found in.

He is a restive bird, and don't come home until morning.

Thus the owl, a mistaken emblem of solitude and sadness, if we dig into its nature closely, is emphatically one of the boys, and belongs to the club.

BRIEF NEWS NOTES.

A letter from Rome states that the presents in money sent to the Pope, from his own States and abroad, in honor of the late fete, are estimated at 5,000,000 francs. During the reception seven military bands executed together, under the windows of the Vatican, a hymn composed for the occasion by M. Gounod.

The New York Herald regards it as a remarkable commercial fact foreigners have regular lines of steamers from all the prominent ports on the Atlantic coast—from Portland to Galveston—while the Americans have scarcely a single line that commands commercial patronage.

A man seeing two crows flying side by side exclaimed, "That is democratic. If anything pains me it is to see one crow over another."

A rich and pious old citizen of Geneva, Switzerland, fears a flood and has begun the construction of an ark in which to save himself and his house.

A New York correspondent notes the fact that negroes are becoming industrious in that city. They now grind hand-organs and cry tooth powder.

Smoking pipes, to the aggregate value of fifty two million francs, were manufactured in France last year.

The Erie Railroad Company have completed 17,000 tons of steel rail on their road—not a broken rail since.

A very large natural cave have been found by a party of Government surveyors near Baxter Springs, Kansas.

The vines in France are diseased, and in many parts of the wine districts the crop is said to be totally destroyed.

Last quarter 109,093,995 postage stamps, valued at $3,269,999, were issued by the Post Office Department.

The St. Petersburg journals state that disturbances continue among the students in Russia, so that the universities of the capital of Kazan and of Kiew have been closed.

Saturday Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON May 1.—The Secretary of War will be absent till Tuesday. The Attorney General will be absent ten days.

Sawyer and Tichlin, the mail contractors over the Southern Pacific mail route, have entered into a contract to transport two million of bullion annually from Chihuahua to New York. The bullion from that section has hitherto been sent to San Francisco and thence to England.

The debt statement shows the total debt principal and interest to be $2 635 033 895; amount in treasury is as follows: coin $92,051,733,96; certificates of deposit $18,307,200; currency $7 896 564; total $116,255,497. Public debt less cash in treasury $2,518,797,391. Decrease during month $6 299,170. $30,000,000 in coin have been disbursed for interest, the larger proportion being for Europe.

The Express says: "The English minister denies that Great Britain has had under consideration the question of the Cuban insurrection. He declares as preposterous the report that it was ever designed to recognize the insurgents as belligerents, and says the British Government is not even informed of the existence of the provisional government of that island. He represents the relations of Spain with her Majesty's government to be highly friendly, and regards the report hereby contradicted as intended to embarrass relations between the United States and Great Britain."

The interview between General Lee and the President this morning was marked by great courtesy. When Gen. Lee was ushered into the Executive office Minister Motley was present.—The latter, however, after a moment, retired thinking perhaps the interview between Grant and Lee had reference to national matters. It had not, however, being confined to mere formal greetings between the two. Gen. Lee is stopping in Georgetown, and keeps entirely aloof from public observation. His visit to the White House this morning was the occasion of great interest. No other interviews were had with the President by any one after Lee retired.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND May 1.—The Southern Opinion announces its last publication this morning. The editor says that he has for sometime thought that the mission of the Southern Opinion had been fulfilled, and adds: "That the distinct southern principles, upon which the paper was conducted are dead in the hearts of the people—is another fact which we cannot but recognize. No cause, however just and good can long outlive defeat."

ENGLAND.

LONDON, April 30.—Sumner's speech creates intense excitement in political circles here. At a cabinet meeting the subject was informally discussed. Bright declared the embarrassment which its publication produced served England very properly, but he agree not to consent to entertain the terms of settlement foreshadowed by Sumner's speech. Lord Clarendon expressed it as certain that the actual negotiations on the subject in progress between the two countries and were of far less extreme character than the speeches of American senators and the articles in the press would seem to indicate. Gladstone professed to have good assurances from reliable quarters that the recent rejection of the Alabama treaty by the American Senate was a purely political movement, and that the present administration will endeavor to settle the Alabama question on liberal and honorable terms. Outside the tone of the English people is anti-American, and more so in consequence of having read only a partial publication of Sumner's argument. The London Star asserts that Sumner's demands are new and startling, and must be regarded merely as enormous, and if they only shadow the instructions given to Mr. Motley, that gentleman will stand in a very different position from that occupied by Mr. Johnson.

The London Times treats as forth the spirit of war in defence of the treasury claiming that sumner's money estimate of damages is pretentious.

The Standard, a Tory organ, exhibits a spirit of defiance towards the American people and wilbresist to the last any capitulation by England.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adopted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are more or less subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE CO.,

JANUARY 1ST., 1869.

Assets $10,462,531,75.

AMOUNT OF INCOME $6,927,071, SURPLUS OVER LIABILITIES

$2,675,999,148.

THE Ætna is not only the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina in having paid the Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. Having by far the largest numbers. But when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the Insured is greater than that of most other Companies.

It is one of the great Companies of the land
IN INCOME, IN ASSETS, IN NUMBER OF POLICIES,
IN AMOUNT INSURED, IN SOLIDITY AND STRENGTH,
IN SOUNDNESS, CHEAPNESS,
PROMPTNESS, AND SUCCESS.

Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of ALL and take a policy accordingly.

"THEY DESIRE A BETTER COUNTRY."

I.

I would not if I could undo my past,
Tho' for its sake my future is a blank;
My past, for WHICH I have myself to thank
For all its faults and follies first and last.
I would not cast anew the lot once cast,
Or launch a second ship for one that sank,
Or drag with sweets the bitterness I drank,
Or break by feasting my perpetual fast.
I would not if I could: for much more dear
Is one remembrance than a hundred joys,
More than a thousand hopes in jubilee;
Dearer the music of one tearful voice
That unforgotten calls and calls to me,
"Follow me here, rise up, and follow here."

II.

What seekest thou far in the unknown land?
Fa hope I follow joy gone on before,
In hope and fear persistent more and more,
As the dry desert lengthens out its sand.
Whilst day and night I carry in my hand
The golden key to ope the golden door
Of golden home; yet mine eye weepeth sore
For the long journey that must make no stand.
And who is this that veiled doth walk with thee?
Lo this is Love that walketh at my right;
One exile holds us both, and we are bound
To selfsame home-joys in the land of light.
Weeping thou walkest with him; weepeth he?—
Some sobbing weep, some weep and make no sound.

III.

A dimness of a glory glimmers here
Thro' veils and distance from the space remote,
A faintest far vibration of a note
Reaches to us and seems to bring us near,
Causing our face to glow with braver cheer,
Making the serried mist to stand aghast,
Subduing languor with an antidote,
And strengthening love almost to cast out fear,
Till for one moment golden city walls
Rise looming on us, golden walls of home,
Light of our eyes until the darkness falls;
Then thro' the cooler darkness burdensome
I hear again the tender voice that calls,
"Follow me hither, follow, rise, and come."

Christina G. Rossetti.

WASHING COMPOUND.
Patented Sept. 22, 1868.
REASONS FOR PREFERING THIS SOAP.
The Patentee claims for this Soap the following advantages which are clearly set forth in the Letters Patent, to-wit:
First, it can be manufactured at less than half the cost of any soap ever produced.
Secondly, it may be used successfully in any kind of water—cold or hot, hard or soft
Thirdly, it so modifies the action of boiling water on woollen goods that their fibres do not contract under its influence, and your woollen garment is as large after boiling as before.
Fourth, it does not decompose the colors of goods, and your prints and stripes are as brilliant after washing as before.
Fifth, the goods do not require any rubbing or patent washing machine—all that is necessary is a few minutes boiling and a good rinsing.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,
$1,000,000,
PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so fuddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he looks into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of

NATIONAL

$1,000,000

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,582 policies.

Amount insured,	$10,005,550.00
Total Premiums,	350,117.03

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 992
By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey, 693
" New England Mutual, 343
" Phœnix Mutual, 335
" Massachusetts Mutual, 312
" Equitable of New York, 277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.
In its 19th year, 1,960 "
And in its 20th year, 2,842 "
this latter being 600 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

FIRST CLASS NEWSPAPER.

CAUTION! WE desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of Snuff generally, that since the war, certain Tobacco Manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."
In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them, as they are the losers thereby. It will be found, upon comparison, that Lorillard's Snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.
THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.
THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.
This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.
The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through a tube, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the heaviest. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.
The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric thoroughly loosening and freeing the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough family address the process.
Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to the wives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be realized in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, also the great saving to the wear of clothes.
The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.
So invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHERS, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state
